

FLEET MOBILISATION

What do you do if there is unseasonable snowfall and you need gritters and snowploughs by the dozen? What happens when you have a sudden need for public and competitor transport for a major sporting event like the Commonwealth Games.

Call Uniloads Special Projects Teamits that simple.

Over the years we have been commissioned to carry out a huge variety of fleet mobilisation projects from coaches, buses and minibuses for the Commonwealth Games, snow ploughs and gritters to keep the M6 and Midlands flowing or even Russian tankers for overseas conflict. With meticulous planning, careful execution and total visibility and control at all times there is only one company to call.
